GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEACHERS

Course Objective

This course should provide the student with an overview of New Testament church history from a Biblical perspective. The book of Revelation is God's prophetic roadmap for His Church from the Apostolic Era to the future Second Coming of Christ. Rev. Wilhelmus a Brakel's commentary on Revelation is an insightful study in that book. So his commentary makes an excellent textbook on New Testament church history. This Teacher's Manual helps Christian teachers utilize it as such a textbook. The goal is for the student

Course Prerequisites

Before pursuing this course the student should be proficient in reading, writing, history, and world geography. The student should already have completed the history textbook Let Me Tell You the Real Story of Mankind (Puritans' Home School Curriculum catalog #1012 at <https://www.puritans.net/puritans-home-school-curriculum/>), as well as the Old Testament Church History (catalog #1003). It is accordingly designed for those in the eighth grade and above.
